A Vendor who sells an animal privately upon the day of sale, whether before or after it has passed through the sale ring, shall book the transaction with the Company and the purchase money shall be paid in full to the Company. The Company will deduct the full amount of the commission before accounting to the Vendor.

In the event of a Vendor failing to comply with the provisions of the last preceding paragraph of this Company he shall be liable to pay to the Company the Commission in full, and any costs, which the Company may incur in obtaining payment thereof.

NOTICE

Passports

No Horse will be sold without a relevant passport.

All horse passports must be handed into the office prior to the Sale.

Payment

Cheques will only be accepted from purchasers well known to the Auctioneers.
Others must pay cash, Card or have approved bankers' references

ORDER OF SALE – AS PER CATALOGUE

Late entries will be sold at the end of the sale of catalogued horses. Lots missing their turn will be sold at the end of the sale.

BIDDING NUMBERS REQUIRED, ALL PROSPECTIVE BUYERS MUST REGISTER WITH THE OFFICE.

Catalogues £2    By Post £2.50

CONDITIONS OF SALE- GENERAL

The Company will intimate, either by advertisement or otherwise the closing date for each sale. The Company reserve the right to offer for sale last any animal entered by a dealer without regard to the balloted sale order.

Each Vendor must provide himself with a catalogue and satisfy him/herself that his/her animal is correctly described, except as to the height stated. If his/her animal is incorrectly described in the catalogue the Vendor shall give notice thereof to the Company before or at the time of sale, otherwise such description shall, as between the Company and the Vendor be deemed to be correct.

A Vendor is not allowed to bid either directly or indirectly for his own animal, but the Vendor has the right to fix a reserve price and to withdraw his animal, should the highest bid not equal or exceed that price.

The highest bidder, whose bid the Company is prepared to accept, shall be the purchaser, provided that his bid equals or exceeds the reserve price fixed by the Vendor. If any dispute arises between bidders as to who was the highest bidder for any animal, the animal shall immediately be put up again and re-sold.

- (i) Each animal shall be at the risk of the Vendor until the Purchaser shall have taken delivery
- (ii) and thereafter shall be at the risk of the Purchaser.

The Vendor shall provide a competent attendant who shall remain in charge of the animal until the Purchaser shall have taken delivery.

If the Vendor fails to comply with the last preceding paragraph of this condition the Company may make an extra £5 per animal against the Vendor, provided always that failing any agreement with the Vendor to the contrary the Purchaser shall be bound to take delivery of the animal within the half an hour after the conclusion of the day's sale, and after that period shall have elapsed the Vendor shall, on making a report to the Company's office, be relieved of the responsibility for the care of the animal.

The Company undertakes no responsibility whatsoever for the care of animals whilst upon the Company's premises, and shall not, under any circumstances, be liable either to the Vendor or the Purchaser with regard thereto, or for any injury or damage which an animal may sustain while upon the Company's premises.

Animals to be halter led where possible. No animal to be 'driven' on Auction Company premises unless accompanied by Auction Mart Employees.

No animal shall be taken away from the Company's premises without the written consent of the Company. Horses offered for sale must be accompanied by a valid passport.

WARRANTIES

No warranty is given as to height. An animal sold for 'Life' or at a price not exceeding 500 guineas is not warranted in any way, and is not returnable.

Subject to the following hereof, the Vendor warrants his animal to be:

According to the description given in the catalogue

All horses offered for sale by the Auctioneers must be sound in wind, eyes heart and action (also free from any substances capable of affecting his performance or soundness), unless expressly stated otherwise. Horses described as 'Hunters' must also be quiet to ride in traffic and capable of being hunted; horses described as being 'Hacks' must also be quiet to ride in traffic; horses described as 'quiet to ride' and/or 'quiet to drive' must also be quiet in traffic; and riding ponies of 14.2 hands or under must be quiet to ride in traffic and manageable by a child of average competence and age appropriate to the size of the Pony. Draught horses described as 'quiet and good workers' shall be interpreted as follows:- The Horse being harnessed to a suitable vehicle or implement must draw the same away in an ordinary manner, that is to say without rearing, jibbing, kicking or bolting. If the animal is a mare or filly, geld unless otherwise stated in the catalogue or declared by the Auctioneers at the time of sale: And If a male when foaled and other than a foal when offered for sale, properly castrated unless otherwise stated in the catalogue or declared by the Auctioneers at the time of sale.

Subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, an animal which fails to comply with the warranties set out shall be returnable and shall be taken back to the Vendor.
